The Committee further reported that the Rev. James Rowland, of the Presbytery of Richland, and Mr. Andrew J. McElvaine, a ruling elder, of the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, are present without commissions; that the Rev. Alden Scovell has presented a commission from the Presbytery of Columbia, which Presbytery has been continued by the minority thereof agreeably to the order of the last Assembly, (see printed minutes, page 172,) that the Rev. Alexander Heberton, and Mr. William B. Ewing, a ruling elder, have presented commissions from a new Presbytery called West Jersey; and that the Rev. James Scott and Mr. William Long, a ruling elder, have presented commissions from a new Presbytery called Raritan.

After the report of the Committee of Commissions had been read, the Moderator gave notice to such Commissioners as were present, but had not had an opportunity of presenting their commissions, that they might now be presented to the Committee of Commissions.

The Committee of Elections made a report which was accepted and adopted as follows, viz:

"That they have examined the several cases to them referred, and find that the Presbytery of West Jersey of the Synod of Philadelphia, and the Presbytery of Raritan, of the Synod of New Jersey, are new Presbyteries formed since the last meeting of the Assembly, by the regular action of their respective Synods. They also find that the Presbytery of Columbia, of the Synod of Albany, has been continued agreeably to the recommendation of the last Assembly, by the minority of the Presbytery of Columbia, the majority of which has seceded from the Presbyterian Church, and that it has been formally recognized by the Synod of Albany. The Committee therefore recommend that the Presbyteries of West Jersey, Raritan, and Columbia, be recognized by the Assembly, and that the following Commissioners be enrolled, viz. Alexander Heberton, bishop, and William B. Ewing, ruling elder, of the Presbytery of West Jersey; James Scott, bishop, and William Long, ruling elder, of the Presbytery of Raritan; and Alden Scovell, bishop, of the Presbytery of Columbia.

"It has also appeared to the Committee that James Rowland, bishop, of the Presbytery of Richland, was duly appointed a Commissioner to the Assembly, but had mislaid his Commission; and that Andrew J. McElvaine, ruling elder, of the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, had been appointed a Commissioner, but the Clerk of his Presbytery had neglected to transmit him his commission. The Committee therefore recommend that James Rowland, bishop, of the Presbyteryof Richland, and Andrew J. McElvaine, ruling elder, of the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, be enrolled as members of the Assembly."

While therefore your Committee are of opinion that there is no ecclesiastical body in the land with which the Assembly could more profitably and cordially correspond and fraternize than with the General Conference of Maine, yet as the whole question which relates to correspondence with other churches at home and abroad, is one, in some aspects of it at least, of much interest, and concerning which there exists considerable diversity of opinion:

The Committee to prepare the minute in the case of the appeal of William J. Frazer from a decision of the Synod of Illinois, suspending him from the Gospel Ministry, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

While the Assembly cannot refrain from expressing their deep concern at the spirit which has been exhibited, in the progress of this appeal, both by the prosecutor and the appellant, in the matters complained of, which appears to have been far from that discretion, and high-minded Christian deportment which are honorable to the ministerial character; yet, in the judgment of this Assembly, the appeal is sustained, both on the ground of irregularity in the courts below, and for the want of sufficient testimony. The Assembly do moreover affectionately and solemnly enjoin it upon the prosecutor and the appellant, and all the parties concerned, to cultivate a spirit of brotherly-love; to seek to heal the wounds this unhappy controversy has inflicted, and to unite their efforts and prayers for the extension and power of vital godliness in the destitute regions where the Lord of the harvest has called them to labour.

That the number of miles travelled as reported to them is twenty-eight thousand and eighty-two miles, which at two cents and seven mills per mile, will amount to six hundred and eighty-four dollars and fifty-three cents, leaving a balance in the Treasury of nine dollars and eight cents, for which sum the Committee recommend that the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to draw an order on their Treasurer.

The report was adopted.

Resolved, That Messrs. J. L. Wilson, Low, Williams, Mitchell, Auchincloss be appointed a Committee to inquire into the expenses of the several Boards, and to ascertain 1. Whether the agency system can be dispensed with or improved? 2. Whether the expenses of the Boards can be advantageously reduced.

The report of the Committee on Overture No. 5 was resumed and adopted as follows, viz:

The Committee to whom was referred the memorial from certain ministers and elders belonging to the Synod of Missouri, and also the memorial from the Presbytery of St. Charles, in relation to the difficulties which have occurred to prevent the regular organization of the Synod of Missouri, at St. Charles, as directed by the Assembly of 1839, beg leave to report—that Inasmuch as it appears that since the adjournment of the Synod of Missouri in October 1835 at Marion College, to meet again at Apple Creek church, Cape Girardeau County, in October 1836, no constitutional quorum had come together on any one occasion, at the time and place to which the members who met from year to year had adjourned, the Assembly of 1839 (see minutes, p. 171,) did, at the request of certain members of said Synod, meet in Convention at St. Louis, in October 1838, direct said Synod to met at St. Charles on the 2d Thursday of September 1839, then and there to organize for the transaction of business, and in case a constitutional quorum should not be present, then those actually present were to organize as a convention—draw up a full and faithful statement of the whole circumstances, and present such statement and themselves at Springfield, in Illinois, on the third Thursday of October 1839, at the meeting of the Synod of Illinois, which from and after such union, was to be called the Synod of Illinois and Missouri; but it now appears from the statement of the memorialists that from sundry causes neither was the Synod of Missouri organized, nor did the ministers and elders present, and organized as a Convention, join themselves to the Synod of Illinois, as directed;—therefore

Resolved, That the Synod of Missouri be, and the same is hereby directed to meet in the Second Presbyterian Church in the city of St. Louis, on the second Thursday in October, 1840, at twelve o'clock M.; that its sessions be opened with a sermon by the oldest minister present; and that, from and after that time, all the churches, ministers, minorities of Presbyteries and Presbyteries within the bounds of the former Synod of Missouri, so far as they adhere to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as directed by the General Assembly of 1838, (see Minutes, pp. 34, 35,) shall be united with and received under the care of the Synod of Missouri, to be then and there organized. But if a constitutional quorum shall fail to be present at that time and place, then as many as are present shall be required to meet and adjourn from time to time, until a quorum shall have been obtained; and in case of a total failure to organize a Synod, they shall report their doings to the next General Assembly, that such final disposition may be made of the case as to that Assembly may seem good.

WM. T. HAMILTON, Chairman.

The Committee to whom was referred the annual report of the Board of Foreign Missions, reported as follows, which was adopted, viz.

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly acknowledge with joy and with devout gratitude to God, the smiles of his favour on this great cause; and that there is great occasion for thankfulness in view of the many effectual doors thrown open to the foreign missionary efforts of the church.

2. Resolved, That we notice with deep interest the condition of schools among the heathen, and the increasing devotedness of missionaries in this arduous department of labour, and that we do earnestly recommend to the church to make these schools, more than ever, the special object of prayer and liberal contribution.

3. Resolved, That the Assembly revolt with anguish from every part of the melancholy alternative which the want of funds will force upon us if not speedily remedied, and that we all respond to the Board, "We cannot give up any part of the field described in their report."

4. Resolved, That the loud call to the churches for help cannot be disregarded by any, without criminal apathy toward the perishing heathen.

5. Resolved, That no financial embarrassment of the country should be suffered to discourage pastors and agents from cogently presenting this cause to the people: for the Spirit of God has graciously added to the church, within this season of unparalleled derangement in the country, a multitude of such as we hope shall be saved, and of course a multitude of willing hearts and hands to supply, and more than supply, with their abundant mites, the lack of fortunes which have been broken or diminished.

6. Resolved, That it be recommended to every Pastor and Session to circulate the Missionary Chronicle diligently among the people, and to make every member of the church feel, by direct and personal appeals, that it is a duty and a privilege to help this cause; and that the Assembly address a circular letter to all the churches under our care, affectionately inviting and urging them to entertain deeper sympathies, to offer more ardent and unceasing prayers, to make immediate, regular and vigorous efforts to collect funds for this object, and that it be read from the pulpit of every church at a suitable time.

Messrs. McGill, W. C. Anderson and Whitner were appointed the committee provided by the sixth resolution of the foregoing series.

On motion of Mr. Comingo,

Resolved, That the members of this Assembly become voluntary agents during the ensuing year, as far as practicable, for the diffusion of missionary intelligence and for the promotion of the missionary cause, within the bounds of their respective Presbyteries.

On motion of Dr. Janeway,

Resolved, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under their care to observe the first Sabbath in January next, with special reference to the conversion of the world; and on that day to offer up fervent and united prayers for the blessing of God on the operations of our several Boards, that they may subserve the great ends for which they have been appointed, the diffusion of the light and truth of the Gospel at home and abroad; that our whole Church, in its organized form, may become what she ought to be, a Missionary Church; and that all other churches of other denominations may become animated with a true missionary spirit, and do their part in accomplishing the great work to which the Head of the Church is now summoning all His people, the work of enlightening, reforming, and converting the world, that He may reign over all nations in the fulness of His grace and glory, and that it be recommended to all the churches to take up on that day collections for the Board of Foreign Missions.

The Committee to whom was referred the annual report of the Board of Education reported; and, on their motion, the report was adopted and referred to the Board for publication.

Dr. Spring offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz.

As the American Bible Society has had from its commencement and still retains unabated the confidence of this body,

Resolved, That the ministers and churches of our connexion be requested to co-operate efficiently with said Institution, in supplying, within their respective states and counties, destitute families, emigrants, Sabbath and common schools, with the Holy Scriptures, and also in furnishing means to prepare and circulate the same sacred volume in foreign countries, where, in the Providence of God, the way is now extensively prepared to receive it.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Tennessee reported; and the records were approved, and it was

Resolved, That, inasmuch as it is the desire and the request of the Synod of Tennessee to be permitted to retain their original style, their request be granted; and that the name of the Synod be, and it is hereby, changed; and that the said Synod hereafter shall be recognized and known by the name and style of the Synod of West Tennessee.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Illinois reported, and the records were approved, with the exceptions, 1st, on page 26, of the following minute, viz.—"Rev. Messrs. James H. Dickey, Dewey, Whitney, and W. Comstock, ministers of the Church of Jesus Christ, being present, were invited to sit as corresponding members"—the bodies to which these ministers respectively belong not being mentioned; and, 2d, of the proceedings of Synod in the case of W. J. Frazer.

The Committee to whom was referred the communication from the Presbytery of Newburyport, made a report which was adopted, as follows, viz.

Whereas, the last General Assembly adopted a resolution directing the Presbytery of Newburyport "to take such order as shall, on the plan adopted by the Assembly of 1838, secure a continued and indubitable connexion with the Presbyterian Church in the United States,"—And whereas, the Presbytery have, by their communication to this Assembly, declared that they are not prepared to comply with this direction: Therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbytery of Newburyport, having thus virtually separated from us, are not any longer recognized as a constituent part of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America; and that the Synod of Albany be directed to remove their name from its roll.

The Committee to whom was referred the annual report of the Board of Missions, made a report, which was adopted, as follows, viz.

1. Resolved, That the Assembly, having heard from the report of their Board of Missions of the continued and increasing prosperity of the cause of Domestic Missions in the Presbyterian Church, would record their grateful acknowledgments to the Head of the Church for these signs and tokens of His favour.

2. Resolved, That whereas the present position of our country and the exigencies of the church demand greatly increased efforts in the cause of domestic missions; and whereas, from the report of the Board, it appears they have already made large engagements and contemplate much more extended plans of operations to meet, as far as practicable, the pressing demand from all portions of our land, and especially from the west, the south, and the south-west, including also Texas; and whereas, to carry forward these extended operations will require the united and cordial co-operation of the churches, the General Assembly do most earnestly urge the claims of this Board on all their ministers and churches.

3. Resolved, To secure the attention of ministers and churches to this important object, the Assembly renew the recommendation of the last Assembly, that inasmuch as the report when published, although sent to every minister, cannot be generally circulated among the members of the churches, it be recommended to the pastors of churches to spread before their people the substance of this report, by reading it, or portions of it, from their pulpits at such time as may be convenient for taking up an annual collection on behalf of this cause.

4. Resolved, That the agents employed by the Board be recommended to the confidence and cordial co-operation of the pastors and churches; and in portions of the church in which the Board may have no agent, the Assembly would earnestly recommend the individual agency of every minister and session in forwarding the interests of the cause.

5. Resolved, That the Assembly have heard with deep interest of the number of itinerant missionaries now in the employment of the Board, and of the good success which has attended their labours; and while they would enjoin on the Board to continue, as heretofore, to aid feeble churches in the support of pastors, they would at the same time renew the expression of their deep conviction of the great importance of itinerant missionary labourers among the more destitute districts and the newly settled portions of our country, and would urge on the Board and on all our ministers and churches, in the language of the report, to unite their prayers, their influence and their efforts, to fill all the dark places of our land with the light of God's salvation.

6. Resolved, That the board be authorized to apply to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, for such an incorporation as the laws of Pennsylvania have given them power to grant.

A Communication was received from the Rev. Dr. John McDowell, repeating the tender of his resignation of the office of Stated Clerk. It was

A communication was received from a "Convention of Reformed Churches, held at Allegheny, May 25, 1840, for the purpose of devising measures for the promotion of the unity of the Church of God, upon scriptural principles;" and inviting the General Assembly to send delegates to the next meeting of the convention, which is to be held at Philadelphia, on the fourth Thursday of May, 1841:

Which was laid on the table.

The committee to whom was referred Overture No. 4, viz. the Memorial from the Session of Apple Creek Church, reported, recommending that the memorial be referred to the Synod of Missouri, with instructions that they take such measures in relation to it as shall be calculated in their judgment to secure the peace and good order of the church of Apple Creek.

The committee on the records of the Synod of Indiana, reported; and the records were approved.

The unfinished business was resumed, viz. the report of the committee on the special report of the Trustees in relation to the funds, which was amended, and adopted as follows, viz.

The committee to whom was referred the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, under date of May 27, 1840, respectfully report:

They regret that any part of the principal of the funds committed by the friends of the Church to the Assembly to be kept permanently entire, should have been used, previous to 1833, for the current expenses of the Boards of the Assembly and its Seminary: when by the express terms of the donations, the interest only could be rightfully used. The report states that the part of the principal thus expended was loaned, but does not state the amount thus loaned, nor that it was repaid, nor in any way secured.

The committee submit that the Assembly is bound in law, and in morals, to supply the deficiency of the principal of the funds at the earliest practicable period.

The committee also regret that any previous Assembly should have approved of the funds of the Church being invested in the stocks of distant banks, with the expectation of receiving a larger income than six per cent. interest. The report states that for one or more years, this expectation was realized, and the revenue was uncommonly large.

But the committee fear that some portion of these investments is now in extreme hazard. It is plain that the Assembly would not, at the present time, recommend a further investment of the church funds in the stocks of South Western Banks. Is it not worthy of the consideration of the Trustees whether it be not the part of wisdom to sell the stocks of the unproductive Banks as soon as it may be judiciously done, and invest the proceeds in securities which are less fluctuating and less hazardous,

The principal object of the reference of the report to this Committee appears to be to procure an expression of their opinion as to the best manner of meeting the present deficiency. The Committee, after as much consultation as their time and opportunities would allow, respectfully suggest, inasmuch as the principal of the missionary and education funds have not been kept separate, but have been mixed with the other funds of the church, and the average of the interest on the whole does not exceed five per cent., that, if necessary, the appropriations to the Missionary Board be reduced to $1000, and to the scholarship and students' departments to $3217. A deficiency of $3900 will be still left to be provided for.

The Committee recommend that the Assembly appoint a Committee of five persons to procure the sum of $5000, if possible, in such manner as they shall judge best, by the appointment of an agent or otherwise; and if the above deficiency of $3000 be not raised, that a further reduction be made, pro rata, in all the appropriations mentioned in the report of the Trustees.

JOHN FINE, Chairman.

Messrs. John M'Dowell, Henry A. Boardman, Matthew Newkirk, Alex. W. Mitchell and James N. Dickson were appointed the aforesaid committee.

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the Board of Publication, made a report, which was adopted, as follows, viz.

1. Resolved, That the report of the Assembly's Board of Publication be approved, and referred to the Board for publication at their discretion.

2. Resolved, That the number of members of the Board be increased to 104.

3. Resolved, That it be recommended to the Presbyteries to take such order as to them may seem best adapted to secure the establishment of depositories and the circulation of the publications of this Board through their bounds.

4. Resolved, That it be recommended to the Board to have its claims brought before all the churches which have not heretofore contributed to its funds; and that the distribution of their publications in foreign lands be presented as an important ground of their application for aid

That in case an act of incorporation aforesaid cannot be obtained, then the Trustees designated and chosen as the Board may direct, shall act in the premises, under such direction and instruction as they may receive from time to time from the Board; and all property, houses, lands, tenements and permanent funds belonging to the said Board, shall be held by said Trustees in trust for the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Resolved, That the Board of Education and the Board of Missions be authorized to take such measures as to them may be deemed best, for the purpose of procuring an act of incorporation in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the state of Pennsylvania; and that these boards also be authorized to appoint the individuals who shall constitute these respective trusts, and also specify the duties to be by them performed.

The committee appointed by the last General Assembly, "to inquire whether any, and if any, what further measures ought to be adopted for securing to the children and young people of our Church, more full advantages of Christian education than they have hitherto enjoyed," presented a report, which was accepted and referred to the Board of Publication to be published.

Overture No. 8 was made the order of the day for Monday next at ten o'clock.

The unfinished business of this morning was taken up, viz. the complaint of Samuel Lowry against the Synod of Illinois. The complainant and the Synod were heard, and the matter was referred to Messrs. J. L. Wilson, R. The Assembly adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY morning, June 1, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee to whom was referred Overture No. 3, in relation to difficulties in the church of St. Charles, made a report of a minute which was adopted as follows, viz:

Resolved, That this Assembly understand the act of the Assembly of 1838, as sustaining the appeal of Rev. Hiram Chamberlain, not upon the merits of the case, but on account of informality of the courts below; and that in "the entire setting aside of all the proceedings in the whole case," they intended not only to annul the past, but also to forbid all subsequent action contrary to the will of the regularly constituted authorities of that church; and they hereby declare any such unconstitutional action that may have been had by any person or persons in connexion with that church, to be null and void.

The Committee to whom was referred the complaint of Samuel Lowry against the Synod of Illinois, made the following report of a minute, as expressive of their judgment in the case, which was adopted, viz:

The Assembly after hearing the documents and the parties in the case of the complaint of Mr. Samuel Lowry against the decision of the Synod of Illinois, by which they affirmed the decision of the Presbytery of Peoria, establishing a 2d Presbyterian church in the town of Peoria, do judge that the complaint of Mr. Samuel Lowry be, and it is hereby sustained pro forma, it having been regularly conducted, and there appearing just grounds of complaint on account of irregularity, and also on the ground of allegations made against Mr. Lowry, some of which have been disproved, and others not sustained by evidence. But it is not intended by this manner of sustaining the complaint, to reverse the decision of the Synod, inasmuch as the Assembly believes the better way of redressing the evils which have arisen there, is not to dissolve the said 2d church, but to adopt some mode of pacification, and prevent, if possible, the recurrence of similar disorders.

The Assembly therefore fix the seal of their disapprobation upon the following irregularities, viz.

1st. The conduct of the Rev. Mr. Kellar in dividing the church in Peoria, by which he did not make a separation from the great body of the Presbyterian Church, but a schism in the body, contrary to the word of God and the government of the Church, which allow of the division of the Church universal into separate congregations only when the people of God are too numerous or too remote from each other to assemble in one place to worship God.

This procedure of Mr. Kellar was the more culpable as the party he organized into a church endeavoured to assume the name and take the place of the regular church in Peoria.

2d. The Presbytery of Peoria are censurable for not calling Mr. Kellar to order when he disregarded their advice to desist from preaching in the town of Peoria.

3. The Synod of Illinois have not discharged their duty. They ought to have spread upon their record every thing which influenced their judgment in the case, and also to have sent to this Assembly authentic copies of the whole proceedings, with all the documents which had been regularly before them. They also seem to have overlooked the irregularity of the Presbytery in dividing a congregation when there was no request from the people on the subject.

It is manifestly lawful, but deemed by the Assembly inexpedient, to dissolve the Second church in Peoria; but in order to bring matters back to a state of order and harmony, the General Assembly hereby direct the Synod of Illinois, at its first meeting, to appoint a committee, composed of men known to be of sound judgment and pacific in their characters, and not obnoxious to either of the churches now established in that town, to visit said churches as soon as practicable, and use their best endeavours to bring them together in one harmonious body, that they may be able to select and support a pastor, and not, as separate and feeble sections of the same body, remain a reproach among their adversaries. In the mean time, the Assembly enjoin it upon the members and the officers of said churches to exercise mutual forbearance and Christian kindness, that they may be prepared to profit from a visit by the committee of Synod.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, viz. the election for additional members of the Board of Publication. The ballots were committed to Messrs. Printz and H. N. Wilson.

The Committee on the desecration of the Sabbath, made a report, which was considered and referred to the Committee on the Narrative.

The Committee to count the ballots for additional members of the Board of Publication reported; when it appeared that the following persons were elected, viz.

The second order of the day was taken up, viz. Overture No 8. The memorials from the Presbyteries of Louisville and Salem, requesting the appointment of a co-ordinate Executive Committee of Missions, to be located at Louisville. The overture was read; and it was moved that the request be granted. And after debate,

The Assembly adjourned till this afternoon at 3½ o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY afternoon, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last three sessions were read and approved.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, viz. the election of a Professor of Biblical Criticism and Oriental Literature in the Western Theological Seminary. The ballots were committed to Messrs. Redington and Harrison; and upon the report of the Committee it appeared that the Rev. Lewis W. Green was unanimously elected.

Messrs. A. D. Campbell and Comingo were appointed a Committee to inform Mr. Green of his election.

The unfinished business of this morning was resumed, viz. the motion upon Overture No. 8. And after debate, the previous question was demanded, and the yeas and nays were recorded as follows, viz:

Yeas.—Messrs. Yantis, S. Scovel, Robertson.—3.

Nays.—Messrs. J. A. Savage, R, Smith, Donald, Morrison, Doolittle, Bull, Prime, Sterling, Patterson, Roscoe, H. N. Wilson, King, S. B. Excused from voting—Mr. Stafford.

So the request was not agreed to.

Messrs. Boardman, Belville, and Hamilton were appointed a committee to bring in a minute expressive of the reasons of the Assembly for the above decision.

The committee who were appointed to write a letter to the churches on the subject of Foreign Missions, made a report, which was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Committee to prepare the Narrative of the State of Religion made a report, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

And then the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY morning, June 2d, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The order of the day was taken up, viz. the complaint of the Presbytery of Blairsville against the Synod of Pittsburg.

The decision complained of, the complainants' reasons, and the records of the Synod in the case were read. The Presbytery and the Synod were heard; and after debate it was Resolved, That the complaint be sustained; and Messrs. Prime, Spring and Mitchell were appointed a committee to form a minute expressive of the views of the Assembly in the case.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave to Messrs. Cory, Roscoe, Sterret, Francis.

The Committee to whom was referred the subject of Agencies made a report, which was considered until

The Assembly adjourned until this afternoon at 3½ o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY afternoon, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee to whom was referred the memorial from the Presbytery of Tombeckbee, reported, and it was

Resolved, That the line dividing the Synods of Alabama and Mississippi, adopted at the last meeting of the General Assembly, be so changed as to include within the limits of the Presbytery of Tombeckbee, the whole of the counties of Chickasaw, Choctaw and Pontotoc, and the counties of Tippah and Tishamingo; and that all the ministers and churches within the aforesaid counties be attached to the Presbytery of Tombeckbee.

The same committee made a further report, which was adopted, viz.

That the resolution No. 3, on page 176 of the printed minutes of the last Assembly, be again sent down to the Synod of Alabama, as the Assembly have no evidence that the Synod acted on that resolution at its last meeting.

The Committee appointed to draft a minute in relation to the decision of the complaint of the Presbytery of Blairsville, reported the following, which was adopted, viz.

The Assembly deem it proper, in sustaining the complaint of the Presbytery of Blairsville, to declare that they do it on the ground that the decision of the Synod of Pittsburg, disapproving of the act of the Presbytery, if carried into effect, would render it necessary for the churches in that Presbytery, and any other within the bounds of that Synod, whose practice may be the same, to change their usage, as to the manner of electing Ruling Elders, which by the constitution is left to be regulated by "the mode most approved and in use in each church." At the same time, the Assembly, in coming to this result, have no design to establish a uniform mode of electing Elders throughout the Church, which is designedly left, by the constitution, to be regulated by the usage of each particular Church.

And it may be added that, in those churches in which the usage has prevailed for the existing eldership to determine when and how large an addition shall be made to the Session, the Church has an effectual security against the abuse of that power, in the right of appeal or complaint secured by the constitution.

The unfinished business of this morning was resumed, viz. the report of the Committee on Agencies, which was further considered, and on being put, the report was not agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Boardman,

Resolved, That it is the deliberate conviction of this Assembly, formed as the result of much experience, that an efficient system of agencies, by which the churches of our connexion may be visited from year to year, is, in the present condition of Christian feeling and knowledge on the subject of benevolent operations, absolutely indispensable.

The Committee appointed to draft a minute expressive of the views of the Assembly, and the reasons for their decision on the question submitted to them in the memorials from the Presbyteries of Louisville and Salem, reported the following, which was adopted:

That, in the view of this Assembly, the change proposed in these memorials in the plan for conducting missionary operations, if adopted, would not only be of no advantage, but decidedly and seriously injurious, both to the cause of missions and to the great interests of the Presbyterian Church.

The Assembly fear it would hazard, if not destroy, that unity of purpose and action which imparts strength and vigour to the operations of their Board; that it would almost necessarily open the door for similar applications from other portions of the Church, and eventually lead to the appointment of sectional, independent missionary committees in the several sections of the Church. Nor would the evil probably be limited to our missionary operations. The plan, if adopted, we fear would be extended to the other Boards of the Church, and might eventually hazard the unity of the Church itself.

And as it regards the West, for whose special benefit the measure is proposed, the Assembly have serious doubts, whether the plan proposed, if adopted, would not be injurious rather than beneficial to the missionary cause in the West, while all the advantages proposed by a change, they believe can be secured by a wise and vigorous prosecution of the missionary work on the plan now in operation. For the reasons specified, which cannot be enlarged upon in a minute, the Assembly have felt themselves called upon to decline granting the request in these memorials.

The unfinished business of Saturday was taken up, viz. the report of the committee on the special report of the Trustees, respecting the receipts and expenditures for the law-suit; which was amended and adopted as follows, viz.

The committee to whom was referred the Treasurer's report of receipts and disbursements on account of the recent law-suit, have obtained from the Treasurer the following supplemental statement, and they report:

That the whole amount received from all sources for this account has been $6293 80, and the whole amount paid out has been $4204 92. Of this balance, have been paid out by order of the Trustees, $1401 17, the amount of the claim of the Associate Reformed Church, leaving still a balance in the Treasurer's hands of $687 71. The committee recommend that the report of the Treasurer referred to this committee, as well as the supplemental report herewith furnished, be printed in the Appendix of the minutes of the Assembly.

Overture No. 9, was taken up, and adopted as follows, viz.

Is it lawful for the same person to hold at the same time, the two distinct offices of ruling elder and of deacon in the Presbyterian Church?

Resolved, That while it is important and desirable, that the several offices in the Christian Church should be kept distinct, and be sustained by different individuals, wherever a sufficient number of competent men can be found; yet in the opinion of this Assembly, it is not inconsistent with the constitution of the Presbyterian Church, nor with the precedent furnished in filling the office of deacon, at its first institution, that where a necessity exists, the same individual should sustain both offices.

On motion, the communication from the General Conference of Maine was taken up, and it was Resolved, That the invitation from the Conference of Maine, proposing the renewal of our correspondence, be accepted.

The Rev. Reuben Smith was elected the delegate to the General Conference of Maine, and the Rev. Dr. Spring to be alternate.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, on the subject of Presbyterian ministers supplying Congregational churches, was continued.

The committee who were instructed to report on the subject of ministerial inefficiency, reported; and the committee was discharged, and the subject was referred to the next General Assembly.

Overture No. 7, viz. a petition from the ministers and churches in Michigan, who were, by a resolution of the last Assembly, attached to the Synod of Cincinnati, requesting that that resolution may be repealed, and that the petitioners may be attached to the Synod of Indiana, was taken up, when it was Resolved, That the request be granted.

The Committee on Mileage made an additional report, recommending that the Rev. James Latta, omitted in their previous report, may be allowed to draw $3 17, his proportion from the remainder of the Commissioners' fund. The report was adopted.

Judicial business No. 2, viz. the complaint of the church of Crab Apple against the Synod of Pittsburg, was taken up and referred to the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, on the ground of the development of additional testimony, and because such is the wish of the complainants; and that the Presbytery of St. Clairsville be instructed to take up the matter de novo.

The following protest was presented and recorded, viz.

The undersigned do hereby protest against the decision of this Assembly, sustaining the complaint against the Synod of Pittsburg in the case of the Presbytery of Blairsville, chiefly because this decision prevents any church from changing their usages on the mode of electing their elders; although the usage may conflict with the constitutional right of each and every individual church member, to say who and how many elders the interests of the Church may require. See Constitution, ch. 1. sect. 6. When the Assembly refer to a redress, by a complaint to Presbytery, we ask, will the Presbytery, or can the Presbytery suffer a complaint to lie, looking at this decision of the Assembly, when the election has been had according to usage? We consider this kind of redress illusory, and cannot forbear to record our solemn protest against the aforesaid decision.

Bills for the incidental expenses, amounting to $147 50, were presented; and it was

Resolved, That the Trustees be directed to pay the same out of the contingent fund.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be given to the Trustees of the Seventh Presbyterian Church for their generosity in giving to this General Assembly the gratuitous use of their church for our sessions.

Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly be presented to the citizens of Philadelphia, for their generous hospitality to the members during these sessions.

On motion of Dr. Spring, it was

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to revise the articles of correspondence between this General Assembly and the General Association of Connecticut, with a particular view of ascertaining whether the certificates given to ministers and candidates from the state of Connecticut shall not hereafter be required from the Pastoral Union, and not as heretofore from the General Association; and that this committee report to the next General Assembly.

Messrs. Gardiner Spring, William W. Phillips and John M. Krebs were appointed the committee.

The minutes of the present session were read and approved.

The roll was called, and the following persons were marked absent at the close of the session without leave, viz.—Alden Scovell, Ezekiel Quillin, John S. Weaver, Joseph Markle, Joseph Moody, William A. Holliday, Wm. G. Campbell, Alex. B. McCorkle, John T. Cookus, John D. Matthews, William Deery.

The Assembly having finished their business, it was Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved, and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in such place, in the city of Philadelphia, as shall be designated by the Stated and Permanent Clerks, on the third Thursday of May, A. D. 1841.

Accordingly, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly with prayer, singing, and the Apostolic benediction.

JOHN M. KREBS,

Permanent Clerk.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION.

Christian Brethren:

In the Narrative of the State of Religion issued by the last General Assembly, you were called upon to rejoice in the termination of that painful conflict which had for so many years agitated our beloved Church. We have now the satisfaction of informing you that the gracious interposition of God by which we were delivered, on the one hand, from pernicious heresies and disorders, and on the other, from the oppression of the civil power, has been followed by many signal mercies, in the view of which we are constrained to say, "The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad."

Among the pleasing indications which have characterized the state of the churches generally, during the past year, are the following, to wit:—the prevalence of peace and harmony—the natural result of a union in the faith and order of our standards; a growing attention to the religious education of the children of the Church, and especially to their instruction in the Catechism; the enlargement and increased efficiency of Sabbath-schools more vigorous and systematic labours for the spiritual improvement of the coloured population in the Southern States; an increased attendance upon the means of grace in nearly all our churches; a rising standard of Christian liberality; and a cordial attachment to the Boards intrusted with the management of our benevolent operations. We learn also with much pleasure, that in a large number of our congregations, the Monthly Concert of Prayer is more numerously attended than it has been at any former period. As this change is ascribed to the transfer of the concert to the first Sabbath of the month, we advise all our churches to consider the expediency of adopting this arrangement; while at the same time we leave any churches which may prefer it, at full liberty to adhere to the original practice of celebrating this interesting service on the first Monday evening of the month.

In addition to the encouraging circumstances already mentioned, there is another feature in the religious history of the past year, which demands our most fervent gratitude to God. It has been, to a very gratifying extent, a year of revivals. We are not able to state with precision how many revivals have taken place within our bounds, but we gather from the reports of the Presbyteries, that about one hundred of our churches have experienced special manifestations of the power and grace of God. We find cause for thankfulness as well in the character, as the number of these revivals. A train of events which need not be detailed, had fostered the sentiment very widely, that revivals were scarcely to be expected without a resort to some other measures than the stated ordinances of the sanctuary. This feeling has been rebuked; for nearly all the revivals of the last twelve months among our churches, have taken place in connexion with the ordinary means of grace. The wonders of mercy which we are permitted to record, have been wrought by the faithful ministration of the truth, enforced by pastoral visitation, and rendered effectual by the sovereign grace of God. Again, instead of the disorders and extravagances which frequently attend spurious religious excitements, these scenes have been pervaded with that solemn stillness which marks all the sublimest operations of the Deity, both in nature and in grace;—for the creation of a world is a work of silent grandeur, and the "wind that bloweth where it listeth," is not so noiseless as the Spirit's work upon the heart.

Another fact of peculiar interest in relation to these revivals, is, that they have extended to most of our large cities. New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Albany, Troy, Pittsburg, Mobile, New Orleans, and other cities, have shared largely in this benign work; and upon some of them, the Spirit has been poured out more gloriously than at any former period. This fact cannot be too highly appreciated when it is considered how many barriers to the progress of religion are concentrated in all large cities; and how mighty an agency they exert in moulding the character and shaping the destiny of nations.

There is another aspect in which this last mentioned class of revivals may be viewed. The financial embarrassments of the country, while they have deranged every branch of industry, and well nigh paralyzed all our great national interests, have pressed with peculiar weight upon our cities. Here, where enterprise, and opulence, and luxury, have had their chief abode, the blow has fallen with unmitigated severity; and affluence and grandeur have, in ten thousand instances, given place to bankruptcy and want. Can we fail to associate with this fact, the peaceful and holy triumphs which Christianity has just achieved in the midst of these desolations? Is there not apparent, in the succession of these events, the superintending providence of a righteous and merciful God, first smiting us in wrath for our sins, and especially for our great characteristic sin—the lust of accumulation, and then, having taught us in a way not to be misunderstood, that "the fashion of this world passeth away," coming forth in the plenitude of his compassions, to bind up the wounds inflicted by his rod, and to replace our poor, fading riches, with satisfying and imperishable treasures?

But while we rejoice in the revivals with which we have been visited, we cannot withhold from you the fact that, however numerous these seasons of refreshing have been, as compared with previous years, they have occurred in only one-eighteenth part of our churches. We feel humbled in recording the statement, (founded on the reports of the Presbyteries,) that among the great mass of our congregations, there has been no special attention to religion during the year; and that in some of the Presbyteries, vital piety has been apparently on the decline. We admonish the Presbyteries and churches to which this painful representation applies, to "search and try their ways." We urge them to seek out the causes of their spiritual declension and to "turn with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning, unto the Lord their God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness, and who knoweth if he will return and repent and leave a blessing behind him?"

We are pained to learn that the desecration of the Sabbath continues to be a prominent, if not a growing sin, in almost every part of the land. The proper observance of this holy day is closely associated with our dearest civil rights, and our most precious religious privileges, with the stability of our political institutions and the safety of the Church. We enjoin it upon all our ministers, sessions and members, therefore, to redouble their efforts to suppress the sin of Sabbath breaking and to promote a becoming regard for the Sanctuary and its ordinances.

In reference to the subject of Temperance, the Assembly regret to learn that this important interest is less thriving than it has been in some former years. It appears to be gaining ground, however, in some parts of the Church; and we believe that its decline in other places, is to be ascribed more to the culpable apathy of its friends than to the opposition of its enemies.

Among the subjects which claim the special attention of the Church, the religious education of the young is of pre-eminent importance. We are pleased to find that our Sabbath-school system appears to be gaining upon the confidence of the churches; but we caution heads of families against the idea that their duties may be delegated to the Sabbath-school teacher. The obligations of parents are intransferable—the teacher is not the parent's substitute, but his helper; and it is equally the duty of the parent to superintend the instruction of his family, as though there were no such thing as a Sabbath-school. These schools, it may be remarked here, should always be under the direction of the Pastor and Session; and they should see to it—that our Catechisms constitute, in all cases, a part of the regular course of instruction.

We have two other suggestions to make to Christian parents on this general subject. One is, that they cause their children to be brought up in the faith of their fathers. We do not mean by this that our youth should be prevented from following out their honest convictions of duty; but that they should be dissuaded from uniting with other denominations from mere caprice or childish fancies. We consider the conduct of those parents who suffer their children to abandon our own Church without any adequate reason, as in a high degree reprehensible, and calculated to inflict a serious injury both on the Church and on their divided households.

Again, we suggest to Christian parents the important duty of dedicating their children to God; and especially of pleading continually with the Most High (in subordination to his holy will) to sanctify their sons and prepare them for the sacred ministry. Our feelings have been deeply enlisted in this subject by the statements laid before us from the Board of Education, which show that the number of our candidates for the Ministry is decreasing. We call upon all the pious parents in our communion to consider this affecting circumstance. We have hundreds of vacant churches in our connexion; several millions of the population of the Union are believed to be destitute of the stated means of grace; the heathen world, spread out before us as one vast scene of crime, and cruelty, and woe, appeals to us with an unyielding and soul-piercing importunity, to send them relief; and yet our candidates for the ministry are fewer now than they have been for five years. Will you not lay this to heart? Will you not bring your sons and consecrate them anew to your covenant God? Will you not give over seeking for them the transitory honours and riches of the world, and pray the Lord of the harvest, if it seem good in his sight, to anoint them with his Spirit and send them forth into his harvest, which is perishing for lack of labourers?

Another duty which we urge upon our members, is that of cherishing an enlightened attachment to our own Church, in her doctrines, her order, and her benevolent institutions. This duty is demanded of us by Christian consistency. We have a system of faith and order, which we profess to believe is founded on the word of God. We cannot, then, with any consistency, refuse to protect it or refrain from suitable exertions for extending its influence. If, indeed, one form of ecclesiastical government is just as scriptural as another, and if there is no essential difference between Calvinism on the one hand, and Arminianism or Pelagianism on the other, we may, in perfect accordance with our principles, leave our own Church to take care of itself, while we employ our efforts in the wide field of universal philanthropy; but no intelligent Presbyterian will assent to sentiments like these.

The relation in which we stand to other denominations, furnishes another reason why we should consolidate our strength and foster our own institutions. It is obviously for the interest of the evangelical churches in our country, that they should preserve a mutually good understanding with each other. Perhaps the best way to secure this, is, for each sect to move in its own appropriate sphere; the different denominations uniting together only in those plans and organizations which require no sacrifice of their distinctive principles. Our sister churches are, it is well known, actively engaged in fortifying their respective positions and extending their boundaries. We are so far from complaining of this, that we commend them for their fidelity to their principles; and in so far as they are propagating the truth, we bid them God speed. But we urge their activity as a motive why we also should be up and doing. If it becomes them to be active, it becomes us much more. For they are imbued with a denominational feeling of long standing and mighty energy; among us, this feeling is in its infancy. Again, the late distractions in our Church, have made it necessary that we should increase our exertions in order to neutralize the allurements frequently held out to entice our people into other sects. It should also be considered that our system of doctrine encounters in every direction a formidable phalanx of prejudice and misrepresentation; so that it requires more effort to propagate it than it does to disseminate doctrines which, being less scriptural, are less repugnant to the unsanctified heart. Unless therefore we emulate the zeal of other churches we cannot expect to retain the relative position which we have long occupied among the leading denominations in this land. This position we have no right to sacrifice to indolence, avarice, a spurious charity, or any thing else short of a providential disability beyond our control. For it is not merely our reputation as a Church, that is involved in this matter, but the sacred obligations which we are under to the God of our fathers, and the general interests of Christianity in the world.

Another reason why we should gather around our own Institutions, is to be found in the condition of our beloved country. These are times of excitement and agitation. The state of the country for several years past has been like a boiling caldron. It would seem as though the spirit of discord had obtained leave to go forth for a season through the land, and work mischief at his will. Commerce, politics, religion, every earthly, every sacred interest has been touched with his demoniac wand and thrown into wild confusion. Most of the great religious denominations have either been rent asunder, or shaken to their centre with intestine commotions. And the conflicting elements of the age are continually generating new and monstrous heresies both in religion and morals. Under these circumstances, self-preservation requires us to tighten the bands which unite us as a denomination; and to cement into a closer alliance, the different parts of our wide-spread communion.

But it is not enough that we consolidate our strength, that we purge out the leaven of heresy, and gather with undivided ranks around our institutions. All this we may do, and yet vital godliness may decline amongst us. We call upon all, therefore, who love the Presbyterian Church, and desire her prosperity, not to rest satisfied with a heartless orthodoxy, but to labour to diffuse throughout our bounds a more fervent, practical, self-sacrificing piety; a more enlarged benevolence; a purer, and more constant zeal for the glory of God and the salvation of men. This is the return, and the only return, which it becomes us to make to God, for the multitude of his loving-kindnesses and tender mercies. The Assembly feel that there is but too much reason for this exhortation. They fear that the Church has been leavened to an alarming extent with a secular spirit—that the line which separates her from the world is less distinct than it once was—that with all her activity in helping on the various schemes of benevolence, there is a selfish, ease-loving spirit eating at the core of her piety, which threatens, unless arrested, to disrobe her of her spiritual glories, and dress her up in the tinsel garments of earthly splendour. The work of reformation has indeed begun, and a brighter day is dawning upon us. But the work can be carried forward to its consummation, only by the efficient co-operation of all our Judicatories and members. Let the Synods and Presbyteries which have borne an illustrious testimony against error and fanaticism, now reprobate a conformity to the world as equally at variance with true religion. Let the ministry give themselves wholly to the work to which they have been ordained; and, in order that they may do this, let the churches see that they are provided with an adequate support. Let Sunday-school teachers pursue their benign work with increasing assiduity and prayer. Let parents repair their family altars, and spend more time and pains in the religious instruction of their households. Let men of business guard against the insidious temptations to dishonesty, which, in these times of financial distress, beset them in all the walks of trade. Let individual Christians cultivate a spirit of entire self-consecration to the Redeemer. Let fervent and unceasing prayer ascend to heaven from every part of the Church, for a great and glorious, a universal and permanent revival of religion. Let the opulent from their abundance, and the poor from their pittance, bring their offerings to the house of the Lord with a cheerful hand. Let a new impulse be given to all our benevolent enterprises. Let our own exuberant mercies, the necessities of the perishing heathen, and above all the infinite condescension and grace of the Redeemer, arouse the Church to the great duty of evangelizing the world, and impel her to enter upon it with an ardour and liberality commensurate with the magnitude of the work, and the debt of gratitude she owes to her God and Saviour.

Should these suggestions meet with that response which we have a right to expect, we feel persuaded that our beloved Church will, under the Divine blessing, "arise and shine;" that her "righteousness will go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth;" and that she will maintain as she has hitherto done, an honourable rank among her sister churches, in building up that kingdom which is "righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost."

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The prescribed course of studies has been pursued during the year, and the committee appointed to examine the students, express their high gratification at the character of the examination, and their entire satisfaction that the Professors and students have performed their respective duties with great fidelity.

The devotion of the officers to their arduous labours—the attainments made by the students in their studies—the elevated tone of piety pervading them, and their attachment to the interests of the institution, are the circumstances that encourage the Board to believe that with the divine blessing accompanying a proper diligence on the part of its friends and managers, the continued and increased prosperity and usefulness of this seminary will be insured, and that it will become a still greater blessing to the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Rev. David Elliott, D. D., is Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology. The Board have to report that the Rev. John W. Nevin, D. D., has resigned his chair of Oriental Literature and Biblical Criticism, for the purpose of accepting the Presidency of the German Reformed Theological Seminary, at Mercersburg, Pa.

Thus a very important vacancy has been occasioned in the Faculty of our Institution, which the Board are anxious to have filled as soon as a suitable person can be obtained.

In the mean time, the department vacated by the resignation of Professor Nevin, will be attended to, according to a temporary arrangement of the Board, by some of the ministers resident in Allegheny city.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PSALMODY, TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Committee on Psalmody beg leave to report to the General Assembly, that they have made some progress in the work assigned them, but have not been able to complete it. They supposed that the object contemplated by their appointment was the production of a book of Psalms and Hymns, which should so commend itself to the whole Church, as, in the course of a few years, to supersede the various books now in use, and thus preclude the necessity of agitating the subject again for a long time to come.

That the Assembly may understand the views of the committee, and be able, if they see fit, to instruct them, they submit the following statement of the objects to which their attention has been directed.

1. A collation and revision of all the English versions of the Psalms.

2. A careful examination of the Hymns now in use, and an inquiry whether some, and if any, which of them ought to be omitted on account of incorrectness in doctrine, on account of their unsuitableness as Hymns, and on account of the inferiority of their poetry.

3. The restoration of the Hymns to be retained in the revised edition, from the modern emendations to which they have been subjected.

4. The selection of an additional number of Hymns.

5. A special regard to the devotional character of all the Hymns.

6. A suitable arrangement and copious index of the whole book.

The Committee are aware that to prepare a book in accordance with these principles, will require much time and no small amount of labour; at the same time they feel persuaded that the Church will not be satisfied with any thing less than an attempt, at least, to furnish such a book.

The Committee would suggest, in conclusion, that their labours, on the anticipation of any changes which might ultimately be sanctioned, ought not in the mean time to prevent any of the churches from introducing the books already authorized by the Assembly, since the additional Hymns, should any be hereafter approved, can be printed and purchased separately.

By order of the Committee,

W. W. PHILLIPS, Chairman.
COR'S. C. CUYLER, Secretary.

CIRCULAR LETTER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN RELATION TO FOREIGN MISSIONS.

To the Churches under the care of the General Assembly.

Brethren beloved in the Lord—

You believe that "where no vision is, the people perish"—that "he who believeth not shall be damned"—that many millions, therefore, of immortal souls are sinking yearly to eternal death without a ray of saving hope, where the Gospel is not known; and can you thus believe, and not yearn with bleeding sympathy for perishing man?

You believe that "out of Zion shall go forth the law and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem"—that the Church of Christ is the chosen instrument for disseminating the light of life in the world—that she is the depository of truth, a city set upon an hill—that nations shall come to her light, and kings to the brightness of her rising, and can you be members of this honoured society, and feel no mighty obligation resting on you? God the Father looks for you to seek after his treasure that is lost. "Behold all souls are mine." God the Son has laid upon you his parting injunction to give his Gospel to every creature, and looks for you to lengthen the cords, till he shall see of the travail of his soul and be satisfied. God the Spirit looks for the bride to say "come," as widely as he says "come," and his invitation is wide as the world. You are commissioned to bear it and proclaim it, and you grieve that Spirit when your purpose and effort are not expansive as his offer. The church which is not animated with the spirit of missions, is less than a church, by one capital defect. Look to the charter—"Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Could you call that people a church, who wilfully neglect a standing ministry and the ordinance of teaching? Could you call that people a church, who wilfully neglect the initiatory seal of the covenant, the ordinance of baptism, and is not the warrant for missions as broadly written and sealed on this commission, as that for teaching and baptizing?

Beloved brethren, shall we stand in doubt of any of you—shall we find in any of our churches a sinful want so radical and subversive? We hope better things of you. We hope that every member of our favoured Zion will feel an awful responsibility which cannot be evaded—will feel that grace occupies his soul, not to be absorbed upon himself, but to make him a radiating centre of light and love to others, and that it is a high privilege to do this work of God—that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

God is calling you to this work by the smiles of his Providence. Even if failure and disaster had followed every attempt hitherto made, it would be the duty of the Church to go forward in darkness, trusting in the name of the Lord, and staying herself upon her God. But every where the infant efforts of our Board are blessed. Every where effectual doors are thrown more widely open. China, mother of myriads, is manifestly approaching some mighty revolution, that may soon let in the missionary of Christ to the very centre of jealousy and darkness. India, with her hundred millions of souls, is ready to throw down her gorgeous superstitions, and to cast away her idols. Ethiopia is literally stretching forth her hands. An African king asks to become a nursing father to the Church, at any expense; he begs for the Gospel—he would take by force the kingdom of heaven that suffereth violence. The Islands of the sea are waiting for us. Our own Aborigines ask us, as they sink in the west, for some inheritance with them that are sanctified, that some of their wasting sons and daughters may be saved from utter extinction, by heirship with him who shall have a seed to serve him while sun and moon endure. The "preserved of Israel," the stubborn Jew himself, feels that he is under some withering curse—that some veil is on his eye, and begins to seek again for "the root and fatness of the olive." Time would fail to survey the opening field. While the field abroad invites and urges with such a glorious prospect, the field at home is like a garden which the Lord hath blessed. The fulness of the blessing of the Gospel has been poured down upon our churches within the last year, giving them bread enough and to spare. We have peace in our borders and harmony in our councils, and cords of confidence and love binding us to unity and strength in the Lord. The conflict for truth has been crowned with signal success; and shall the truth, more precious than many sums of gold and silver, be redeemed only to be hidden in a corner? If what we call truth, is not diffusive as the light of heaven, by our hands, it is not the truth, or we have not the heart to apprehend it aright.

By every consideration—by the power of many a pure and elevated motive which we need not mention here, you are summoned to the work of God in sending salvation to the heathen. You need scarcely ask, whom shall we send? Devoted men called and sanctified by the spirit of God, are standing idle, till you send them—beseeching you with the loud and repeated call, "send us." We have Bibles—we have missionaries—we have stations and facilities—every thing but the funds which you must furnish. The call of God is now upon you, both in his word and providence. We are waiting for your answer, the poor heathen are waiting—another generation of millions going down to death while you hesitate. Shall our missionaries be detained at home—shall our prosperous stations be abandoned—shall the bidding of God be mocked, and his truth dishonoured, and his bounty abused? Shall the heathen perish, and your money perish, and your own soul go quickly to meet at the bar of God millions of despairing eyes to turn on you the reproach of their eternal death and horrid woe?

The Assembly would, in conclusion, call the attention of the churches to the great want of missionary intelligence among the people. We cannot expect them to awake duly to this great work, we cannot expect them to pray with understanding for the beloved labourers in the field, unless they are acquainted with their stations, their trials, and encouragements. Such intelligence is furnished in "The Foreign Missionary Chronicle," a monthly paper, whose general circulation would be eminently calculated to promote a deeper tone of missionary feeling. Some of our church sessions have procured copies of this work with the money collected at the Monthly Concerts. The Assembly highly approve of this plan, and recommend a general adoption of it, as the means of securing a fuller attendance at the Monthly Concert, and diffusing the information so much needed, and eventually quickening the energies that have slumbered so long in this momentous duty.

Note.—It may be seen from the foregoing Summary View, that it is still a desideratum to obtain full reports from Presbyteries. Many of the Statistical Tables, notwithstanding the earnest appeals which have been made on this subject, are not only deficient in details, but drawn up with culpable carelessness. It is respectfully urged upon Presbyteries to see that their Stated Clerks not only make every proper effort to obtain full returns from the Churches, but that they prepare the tables in a legible manner and with the columns arranged in the order adopted in the printed minutes.

There are two columns, noting the sums raised for particular funds, which are not to be relied on as affording a plain history of facts. Thus, the sums collected for the Contingent Fund seem, in some instances, to have been collected for the contingent funds of Presbyteries, and not for that of the Assembly, as no such sums have ever been paid into the latter. And again, under the head of Publication Fund, in some instances the sums pledged are mentioned, instead of those actually paid; thus, the Presbyteries of Baltimore and Cincinnati report the amounts subscribed, of which a small proportion only has been paid in.

TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.
